Lotus Lake Camp

@lotus_lake_camp

Established in 1952, Lotus Lake Day Camp provides a tradition of day camping for children ages 5-14 in Central Vermont. Situated in a rural setting, the camp offers a wide variety of outdoor activities. A “real” Vermont camp.

MISSION

The camp’s goal is to help each child develop individually by providing an opportunity to:

- improve in swimming and develop skill in other activities
- learn about the natural environment through outdoor experiences
- grow in social relationships by broadening friendships and participating in group activities
- develop decision making skills and independence in a safe environment

FACILITIES

- 16-acre private lake with swimming and small craft
- main shelter with bathhouses & woodshop
- craft barn and rec barn
- hiking trails, campsites, lean-tos
- 3 tennis courts - 2 clay, 1 all-weather
- archery range
- all purpose cabin
- 325 acres to explore
- athletic field

CO-DIRECTORS

Abbey Allen and Chelsey Hoyt (2025 - present) Abbey is a school counselor at the Central Vermont Career Center and Chelsey is the athletic trainer at Spaulding High school. Both have been working at camp their entire life and are 7th generation members of the Martin family on the Lotus Lake property. Both oversee all components of the camp program.

Director Emeritus: Beth Allen (2014 - present) - Retired middle school health teacher and coach. A sixth -generation member of the Martin family on the Lotus Lake property, Beth will continue to be present at camp but in a more guidance and part time basis.

STAFF: THE BEST OF THE BEST IN CENTRAL VT

- Camp staff include teachers, college students and high school students, a high percentage of whom have completed the LLC CIT program
- Staff are trained in safety and child development and have certifications from national organizations in specific camp activities
- Many are LLC alumni and all have a love of children and the outdoors
- All staff are screened through the national sex offender registry, and all 18 and over are screened with a background check, and all have to complete a voluntary disclosure form
- A driver’s record check is required for all staff who drive campers
- Staff are certified in CPR/First aid and many have their lifeguard training certification.
